Monroe County DMVs Christmas Food Drive

(December 15th, Rochester NY) – Monroe County Clerk Jamie Romeo today was proud to announce that Monroe County DMVs will be hosting a food drive this Holiday season in partnership with the local non-profit Unity & Healing through Hope of Monroe County. Residents are encouraged to bring in canned goods and dry food to donate for the next two weeks to help support families in. Collected barrels are located at all four DMV locations:

Henrietta DMV	1225 Jefferson Road
Irondequoit DMV	545 Titus Avenue
Greece DMV	152 Greece Ridge Center (inside the Mall)
Rochester (Downtown) DMV	200 East Main Street

“It is important to remember that while many of us make holiday preparations to share meals and special time with family, many in our community struggling with poverty will not have the same opportunities. I want to thank Clay Harris with Unity & Healing for helping establish this partnership with local DMVs. Together, we hope to help spread the make this holiday season one of joy and comfort for every family in Monroe County.”

Clay Harris of Unity & Healing through Hope of Monroe County added “We at Uniting and Healing through Hope of Monroe County would appreciate all the community support in their donating for Christmas. There’s great need so please help and give generously!”

If you have questions or need more information regarding this food drive please feel free to contact our communications officer Katelyn at mcclerkpress@monroecounty.gov
