MONROE COUNTY FACILITIES TO CLOSE FOR SOLAR ECLIPSE MONDAY, APRIL 8, 2024

MONROE COUNTY, NY — As our area prepares for an influx of visitors to watch the once-in-a-lifetime solar eclipse, Monroe County is closing all public facing county buildings on Monday April 8.

These closures include:

- County Office Building
- County Clerk's Office
- All DMVs
- Monroe County Department of Human Services Buildings (Westfall Road and St. Paul Blvd.)

Monroe County is reminding residents to "Be Aware, Be Prepared and Be There" during the eclipse. For a list of safety tips, go to monroecounty.gov/eclipse-2024.
